

Jonathan Love

Phone: 925.381.2006
Email: JonLove@sageap.com

Professional: 25 years of consulting and leadership training. Executive experience in corporate and non-profit organizations

Coaching and Consulting Bell Labs, Lucent Technology, Hewlett Packard, United Nations Development Program, various non-profits and social entrepreneurs.

Interests and Specialty: Effective engagement at all levels, Coaching individuals and teams to produce results beyond the range of the expected. Robust organizational cultures. Policies and practices that lead to full sustainability.

Education: University of California at Berkeley - Majored in History and Philosophy of Science
San Francisco State University - Cultural Studies and Anthropology
Garrison Institute: Climate, Mind and Behavior Program
Knowledge Ecology Consortium - Certificate of Knowledge Management Practice

Professional Biography

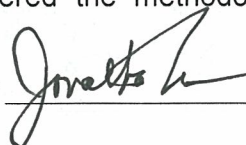

Jonathan Love has recently served as an executive with The Pachamama Alliance, a non-governmental organization in San Francisco, CA. He was a key member of the development team that created a multi-media educational Symposium delivered by volunteers. In the first four years over 2500 facilitators were been to lead the Symposium and over 100,000 people have attended.

As the Founder and Senior Partner of Leadership for Social Change Jonathan has been a practitioner of Organizational Transformation for over 25 years. He has assisted dozens of companies to develop leadership at all levels of the organization, ensuring that breakthrough results are accomplished by the people of the enterprise. Using a model of leadership that incorporates effective practices derived from diverse and eclectic sources, grounded in somatic, linguistic and emotional competence. Jonathan guides participants to discover and then realize commitments that have been suppressed and gone unfulfilled until now.

Prior to consulting Jonathan was a marketing executive at ComputerLand Corporation and CEO of Armstrong Kitchen and Development Director at The Hunger Project.

Consulting engagements projects

- For UNDP – Designed and delivered leadership training to people and organizations on the front lines of the fight against AIDS/HIV. Delivered the methodology of

By  _____